DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

> The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

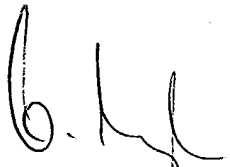

2. Claims 1-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for 1) the forming of a fluid packet after the hold-off pressure is reached (see lines 7-8 of page 13 of the specification) and 2) the vessel has been defined in the last paragraph of page 9 as a container or conduit capable of containing fluids, does not reasonably provide enablement for 1) the step of pressurizing a vessel containing the fluid packet to a pressure less than or equal to a hold-off pressure as claimed in claims 1-16 and 2) as that for containing the fluid packet as claimed in claims 17-27. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims.
